

Go to your knees

Go to your knees.
The squat, cold earth will hold you.

Go to your knees.
Let weight be borne by hip socket.

Go to your knees.
Decide place and time.

Go to your knees.
Reveal the long-sealed soft spot.

Go to your knees.
Let belly and balls hang from ribs.

Go to your knees.
Lower
than I, lower.

Go to your knees.
Pray for the strength.

Go to your knees.
Just for a moment.

Go to your knees
Lower,
than I, lower.

The axe
rises and falls breath-weighted.

Go to your knees.
For us, cowards that stand.

Go to your knees.
Magnus.
Go to your knees.
